The Daily Courant.

Friday, March 1. 1723.

London, March 1.
Yeſterday arrived a Mail from France.

Paris, March 6.

THE Body of the Princeſs Dowager of Condé being put in a Coffin, was laid the 27th paſt upon a Bed of State, and the Room and Apartments leading to it hung with Mourning. The Heralds at Arms attended at the Feet of the Bed, dreſſed in their proper Robes, with the Enſigns of their Office covered with black Crape: Two Altars were likewiſe ſet up, at which Maſſes were ſaid every Morning, and the Houſhold Officers of the late Princeſs attended there to perform the Funeral Honours. The next Morning and the following Days, the Princes and Princeſſes of the Blood went to ſprinkle Holy Water upon the deceaſed Princeſs's Body. On the 1ſt Inſtant, M. Maſſei the Pope's Nuncio, dreſt in his Eccleſiaſtical Veſtments, Don Patrick Lawleſs, Ambaſſadour of Spain, the Count de Veroon, Ambaſſadour of Sardinia, and the Bailly de Meſmes, Ambaſſadour of Malta, all of them in deep Mourning, went to the Hôtel of Little Luxembourg: They were received at their Arrival by M. de Remond, Introductor of Ambaſſadours, and by M. Deſgranges, Maſter of the Ceremonies, and conducted to a Room near the Place they alighted from their Coaches: They were afterwards led into the Chamber where the Body was lying in State, and were received by an Aſſiſtant of the Maſter of the Ceremonies and by two Heralds; here the Nuncio, and the Ambaſſadours of Spain, Sardinia, and of Malta, ſaid their Prayers, while the Eccleſiaſticks ſung the De Profundis; after which, the Almoner preſented the Holy Water-Pot to the Nuncio and Ambaſſadours, who ſprinkled the Body, and then were reconducted in the ſame Manner they had been received: The Houſhold Officers belonging to the late Dowager Princeſs of Condè, waiting upon them to their Coaches and ſtayed till they drove off.

The Chapter of Nôtre Dame, the Cardinal de Noailles, Archbiſhop of Paris at their Head; the Parliament; the Chamber of Accompts; the Court of Aides; the Univerſity, and the City Companies, went likewiſe with the uſual Ceremonies to ſprinkle the Princeſs's Body with Holy Water, as did alſo ſeveral other Communities, and a great Number of Perſons of Quality.

The 3d Inſtant at Night, the late Dowager Princeſs of Condé's Body was conveyed with a numerous Train, and the accuſtomed Ceremonies, to the Church belonging to the Monaſtery of the Carmelites of the Suburbs of St. James, accompanied by the Dutcheſs Dowager of Bourbon. The Biſhop of Auxerre preſented the Body, which was buried under the Nun's Cloyſter near that of her Daughter the Dutcheſs of Vendome. The Princeſs's Heart remains depoſited in the Church of the ſame Monaſtery, in order to be brought in a few Days to the Abbé Royal of Maubiſſon.

Paris, March 6. The Day the King held his Court of Juſtice at the Parliament-Houſe, the Firſt Preſident gave a great Entertainment to the Dukes of Luxembourg, de la Rochefoucault, de la Feuillade, de l'Orge, de Biron, de Leius, and de la Valiere; to the Mareſchals de Villars, de Teſſé, and de Berwick; to the Dutcheſſes of Ventadour, de la Ferte, de Villars, and de Tallard; to the Marchioneſſes d'Ambres, and de la Vrilliere; to the Preſidents de Lamoignon, Porlait, des Maiſons, and to ſeveral other Members of Parliament. Great Diſcourſe is had of a Petition preſented by Meſſ. Paris to the new Council, ſigned by the Four Brothers, in which they deſire a Commiſſion may be appointed, compoſed half of Men of the Sword, and half of the Gown, before whom they pretend to prove the Miſapplication of above 50 Millions belonging to the Military Cheſt. The Liſt of vacant Benefices are at preſent kept by the ancient Biſhop of Frejus. It is aſſured that this Court entirely approves of the Project of the Act which the Emperour has ſent to Cambray, concerning the Inveſtiture of the States of Tuſcany, Parma, and Plaiſança, in Favour of the Infante Don Carlos, which removes all Doubt of a happy Iſſue to the Congreſs at Cambray. The Day that the Grand Council went to compliment the King upon his Majority, M. Dauby, the Advocate-General for that Body, made the following Speech.

SIR,

THE illuſtrious Blood which flows in your Veins, has always aſſured us of the Royal Qualities which ſhine in your Actions, and your Majeſty's happy Education confirms to us a Monarch perfectly inſtructed in the nobleſt Maxims of the Art of Reigning: Can there be any thing more for us to deſire? Virtue reigns in your Majeſty, and your Majeſty over us! Your Glory, Sir, is certain, and our Happineſs ſecured.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

Which vastly transcends any Thing ever yet made publick, and is really the noblest Secret in Nature to beautify the Face, Neck and Hands, as most of the first Quality have experienced: For it gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising handsomeness to the Neck and Hands, on which last Account several Gentlemen as well as Ladies use it, and admire its superior Excellency, it being indeed far beyond any Paste, Powder, or Washball, for immediately making a red or rough Hand exceedingly smooth, fine and delicately White, it certainly takes away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Freckles, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Sun-burn, or any other discolouring, almost in an Instant; and removes all Wrinkles so perfectly, as not only to conceal, but even to mollify the Defects of old Age, making the Skin become so truely and incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and charming fair, as to cause Admiration in all Persons; and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, for it brings the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to its natural Beauty and Perfection, viz. a lasting youthful Fairness, Smoothness and Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this Royal Beautifier prepared from the least Particle of Mercury or any thing Mineraline, but is perfectly innocent and harmless, and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is so far from being troublesome to use, that the nicest Ladies think it pleasant. Is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, near Arundel-street-End, at 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions. Beware of Counterfeits under other Names.

It not only cleanses, but also alters a particular manner, most powerfully strengthens the Reins, recovers their lost Tone, and brings all those Parts and Passages into their right Order, in both Sexes. Price half a Guinea a Bottle, with Directions seal'd up, which is generally enough to cure any one Person. To be had at Mr. Lockton's Toyshop at the Griffin the Corner Shop in Bucklersbury in the Poultry.
